Office of the Mayor

TUSCALOOSA, ALABAMA

WHEREAS, Shelton State Community College serves the residents of West Alabama with a broad array of educational services including transfer education, two-year degree programs, career preparation, basic skills education and continuing education; and

WHEREAS, Shelton State Community College enjoys a special partnership with business, industry and government that benefits the local economy by providing educational opportunities for new and current employees; and

WHEREAS, Shelton State Community College is a partner in education with local elementary and high schools, fostering quality of instruction at all levels of education; and

WHEREAS, Shelton State Community College is a resource for community services, including cultural programming, educational and career counseling and special events for the entire family; and

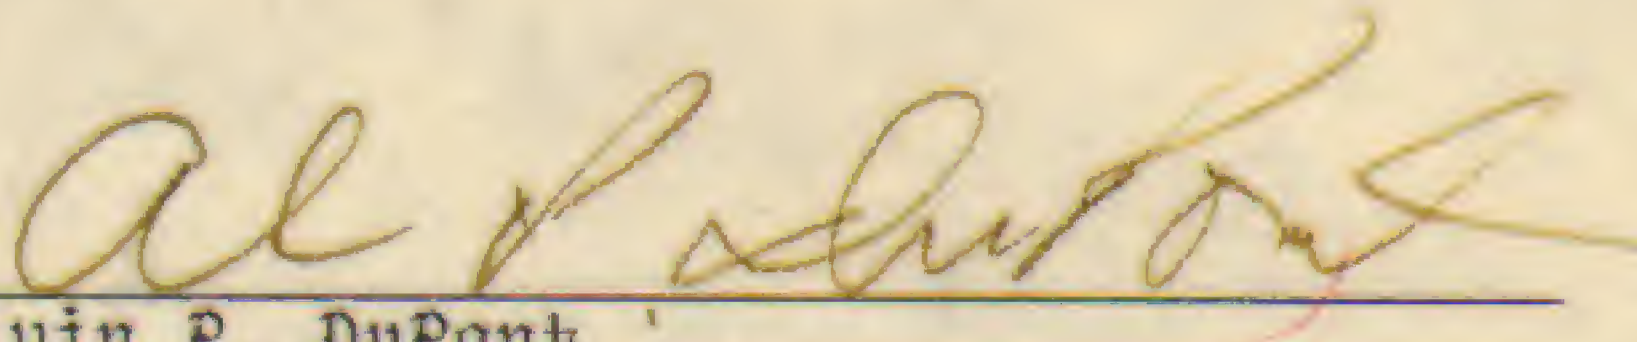

WHEREAS, over 5,000 West Alabamians attend Shelton State Community College each year and more than 30,000 residents have taken advantage of courses over the past ten years.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Alvin P. DuPont, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Tuscaloosa, Alabama, and on behalf of the City Council, do hereby proclaim the months of February, 1989, as in Tuscaloosa, and ask all Tuscaloosans and West Alabamians to join Shelton State Community College in celebrating National Community College Month during February, 1989, in honor of the community college system in our state and its leadership role in offering educational and employment opportunities for all.

"NATIONAL COMMUNITY COLLEGE MONTH"

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the Corporate Seal of the City to be affixed this the 16th day of February, 1989.

Alvin P. DuPont
Mayor, City of Tuscaloosa, Alabama.
